Pursuing a B.A. in International Business requires a minor in a Modern Language. Students who have demonstrated fluency of a native speaker in a language other than English are required to complete an approved Special Studies minor. Free Electives are reversed for this requirement.

*These are the recommended HUM, LIT, TRS, & PHIL courses. Alternates are available should these courses be filled. Please also see the tracking sheet under "Click to View" for additional courses.

 Students may study abroad Spring of Sophomore year, Fall Junior year, or Spring of Junior year. In which case, the study abroad courses will be swapped with the appropriate semester. TRS-Christian Theology in Rome, CLAS206R, and ART319 or equivalent courses are recommended for Rome Study. The courses taken while abroad depend on what location and program the student chooses to pursue.

University Honors Students should consult with the University Honors & Major Advisors for Honors general distribution courses.
